

Things that affect the treatment of Type 2 diabetes

The modality of treatment recommended by the clinical team will generally depend on the following;

- The presence of other illness such as kidney diseases, other diseases of the heart and blood vessels (cardiovascular diseases), liver diseases, infectious diseases such as HIV, tuberculosis etc,
- Weight of the person with type 2 diabetes
- The capacity of the person with type 2 diabetes to pay for treatment